Pulaski's Junior Karcz passed Casco's Matt Junio for the lead on lap 14 and battled his way into victory lane, capturing the 20 lap IMCA stock car feature. Junio settled for second place money, followed by defending track champion Troy Muench.

New Franken's Brad Lautenbach scooted inside of Jeremy Cota of Oconto with two laps to go to collect the IMCA northern sportmod feature. It was Lautenbach's third feature win of the young 2011 season.

Casco's Derek Moede led wire-to-wire and fought off a fast closing Eugene Gregorich Jr. in the waning laps to win the caution free, 18 lap IMCA hobbiestock feature. Gregorich, guest driving Ryan Rohr's racer, took second.
