Schedule subject to change

Eric Mahlik started fifth on the grid, and stuck with early race leader Mike Joski of New Franken and passed him for the lead on lap six. Mahlik skillfully threaded his way through lapped cars the balance of the way to collect his first career feature win. JJ Anderson wrestled second away from Joski in the final laps to take second. Joski took third, followed by defending track champion Troy Jerovetz and Brad Lautenbach.

Dave Schmidt battled hometown driver Wes Salentine down to the wire, emerging triumphant in capturing his first ever IMCA hobby stock feature. The contest was shortened to 14 laps due to a time limit, caused by seven yellows. Salentine took second, followed by Algoma's Travis Hackett, Denmark's Tom Brumlic and Luxemburg's George Paul.
